

SESSION 2016 – 17

INSTITUTIONAL DISTINCTIVENESS

Our institute provides students opportunities for learning the subjects to earn desired degree and also help them to gain knowledge in subjects beyond the course. The college is situated at the heart of the Goalpara West Constituency, but large numbers of students are drawn from rural back ground and adjacent char areas of mighty river Brahmaputra. The college provides a platform to the students from socially disadvantaged sections like tribal, SC, OBC, MOBC and religious Minority community. The college is committed to nurture the sense of rational thinking and humanistic values so as to maintain unity in diversity, brotherhood, peace of communal harmony. Keeping in view the distinctive vision of our college, it has the capacity to accommodated both girls and boys in the hostels who come from “char “and distant areas. To promote inclusive education, the college emphasizes on mainstreaming the religious minorities in the char areas, Economically weaker sections (EWS), and tribal communities. To maintain universal brotherhood, the college celebrates all religious festivals like Saraswati Puja, Bishwakarma Puja, Bihu, Milad un-Nabi, Fateha- Dwaz-daham etc. The faculty members encourage the students to visit the college library to create reading habit. Apart from other socio – economic areas, our faculty members provide extra attention in the academics to ensure a holistic development among the students. To impart quality education, the teachers of the college also keep themselves updated in the field of academic by attending seminars, orientation programme, faculty development programme, short term and refreshers courses. Our college was set up with the co-operation and support of the community to address the need for providing quality education to the economically weaker sections. The meritorious but economically backward students of west Goalpara area were unable to get access to quality education due to lack of transportation and unaffordable cost of education specially girl students. Due to the establishment of our College, the enrollment of girl’s students has increased in a large number compared to the boys. Especially to the girl’s students coming from the char areas are provided a safe and secure with women / girl’s hostels where they are provided all facilities for fulfilling their dreams. The college provides Gym within the campus to provide our students for physical and mental fitness.
